

EVICTON INSTRUCTIONS (Please read carefully)

To file an eviction, you will need to do FOUR THINGS:

- 1) Fill out an Original Petition (click to see).
- 2) Fill out a Justice Court Civil Case Information Sheet (MUST be included with every case filed).
- 3) Fill out a Serviceman's Civil Relief Act affidavit (MUST BE INCLUDED IN EVERY CASE).
- 4) Bring the sheet and the petition to our office along with a cashier's check, cash, money order or credit card to pay the filing fee of $41.00 plus $75.00 for serving fee. If more than one person is named in the lease, You should serve a separate citation on each person NAMED IN THE LEASE $75.00 for each additional person.

You are strongly encouraged to read the new rules of civil procedure. There are numerous changes to the eviction laws, such as Bond for Immediate Possession and other provisions.

- The timeline for the hearing date is slightly different (Rule 510.4 {10})
- The rules for Bond of Possession have changed (Rule 510.5)
- Writ of Possession EXPIRES after 60 days (used to be indefinite) (Rule 510.8 {d}{1})
- Appeal rules have been modified under Rule 510.9

1) Evictions must be filed in the proper Justice of the Peace Court. A map is available at the County Clerk Office, and maps are in each Justice of the Peace office. Cashier's Checks, Money Order or Credit Cards are accepted. Your property must be properly marked with the physical address assigned by the 911 emergency address system or the appraisal district. If your property is not clearly marked, the Constable will return the eviction citation un-served and you will have to start over. Location number can be posted by numbers on the building proper or by numbers located on a sign posted in front of the property.

2) By law you must give a NOTICE TO VACATE before you can file an EVICTON SUIT. The landlord must give the tenant at least 3 days written notice to vacate before filing this eviction, unless the lease signed by both parties states otherwise. The NOTICE TO VACATE must be in writing and comply with Section 24.005 of the Texas Property Code, which is found at <http://www.statutes.legis.state.tx.us/Search.aspx>. A defective NOTICE TO VACATE can result in DISMISSAL of your Eviction.

3) COURT COST for filing an eviction on one tenant is $116.00. Section 510.2 of the NEW Texas Rules of Civil Procedure states "The plaintiff must name as defendants all tenants obligated under the lease residing at the premises. You can ONLY get a judgment against the defendant served. If you wish to have a judgment against two parties, then you MUST pay for service and have both parties served. This is an additional $75.00 per person.

4) ATTORNEY'S FEES: To be eligible to recover attorney's fees in an eviction suit, a Notice to Vacate must be served by a process server, personally with a witness, or by return receipt requested certified mail ten days prior to the date the suit is filed.

5) WHO MAY FILE: The owner or the owner's agent may file any type of forcible detainer suit, and he may represent the owner in the hearing. EFFECTIVE September 1, 2013, every Justice Court civil filing will require a JUSTICE COURT CIVIL INFORMATION.

6) JOINING A SUIT FOR RENT: A suit for rent may be joined with the eviction suit, if the amount due is within the jurisdiction of this court. ($10,000.00). Any damages, late charges, utilities, or other charges may not be included in this action; HOWEVER, The owner or the owner's attorney may file suit for these amount in a separate action filed in Small Claims Court.

7. PROCEDURES AFTER FILING; At the time the suit is filed, a hearing date will be set up to 21 days from the filing date; usually at 9:00 A. M.. A citation will be issued to the Constable's or Sheriff's office to be served on the tenant giving them the date and time of the hearing.

8. THE HEARING: You are required to appear personally for the hearing. Proper representation is essential (as per item # 5 above). At the court hearing, both sides will have the right to present their side of the case, including witnesses, receipts, canceled checks, photographs, and all other evidence. You will need to bring with you all evidence pertaining to the case. The burden of proof lies with you as plaintiff. You must show the Court good and sufficient evidence proving your right to regain possession of the property. You must still prove your case, even if the defendant fails to appear.

9. JUDGMENT; At the hearing, a judgment will be rendered for either the plaintiff or the defendant. A judgment for the plaintiff may be for all or part of the initial claim. If you are awarded a judgment for possession of the premises and/or any back rent owed, there is a 5 day appeal period in which the defendant may appeal the decision to the County Court. If the Defendant has not appealed the case at the end of the appeal period, Judgment becomes final.

Upon final judgment you may then file for A Writ of Possession if the defendant has still not vacated the premises. A writ of possession has a court fee of $130.00. This is a writ that authorizes the Constable to supervise while the Plaintiff removes the property from the premises. You may wish to contact the Constable (Constable Charlie Phillips) at 361-229-0495 for more information on Writs of Possessions.

Once the appeal period has passed, you may file an Abstract of Judgment in the County Clerk Office if you have a judgment for money. This is a document that we prepare in this office, then you file it in the County Clerk office. This puts on record at the County Clerk's office that you have a judgment against the defendant. The abstract is good for a 10 year period. Abstract of Judgment has a court fee of $5.00.

MOBILE HOME CASES: If you are seeking an eviction based on late rent payments for a MOBILE HOME LOT (tenant owns mobile home, you lease them the lot), you are required by law to give the Tenant a ten-day NOTICE TO CURE before you can file an eviction (Sec. 94.206, Texas Property Code). Without the NOTICE TO CURE, your case will be dismissed. If they do not cure the problem after the ten-day notice, you then give them a three day NOTICE TO VACATE. Texas Law contains specific rules regarding mobile homes. See Manufactured Home Tenancies.

RULE 510.5. REQUEST FOR IMMEDIATE POSSESSION

(a) Immediate Possession Bond. The plaintiff may, at the time of filing the petition or at any time prior to final judgment, file a possession bond to be approved by the judge in the probable amount of costs of suit and damages that may result to defendant in the event that the suit has been improperly instituted, and conditioned that the plaintiff will pay defendant all such costs and damages that are adjudged against plaintiff.

(b) Notice to Defendant. The court must notify a defendant that the plaintiff has filed a possession bond. The notice must be served in the same manner as service of citation and must inform the defendant that if the defendant does not file an answer or appear for trial, and judgment for possession is granted by default, an officer will place the plaintiff in possession of the property on or after the 7th day after the date defendant is served with the notice.

(c) Time for Issuance and Execution of Writ. If judgment for possession is rendered by default and a possession bond has been filed, approved, and served under this rule, a writ of possession must issue immediately. The writ must not be executed before the 7th day after the date defendant is served with notice under (b).

(d) Effect of Appearance. If the defendant files an answer or appears at trial, no writ of possession may issue before the 6th day after the date a judgment for possession is signed.

RULE 510.6. TRIAL DATE; ANSWER; DEFAULT JUDGMENT

(a) Trial Date and Answer. The defendant must appear for trial on the day set for trial in the citation. The defendant may, but is not required to, file a written answer with the court on or before the day set for trial in the citation.

(b) Default Judgment. If the defendant fails to appear at trial and fails to file an answer before the case is called for trial, the allegations of the complaint must be taken as admitted and judgment by default rendered accordingly. If a defendant who has answered fails to appear for trial, the court may proceed to hear evidence and render judgment accordingly.

(c) Notice of Default. When a default judgment is signed, the clerk must immediately mail written notice of the judgment by first class mail to the defendant at the address of the premises.

(b) Jury Trial Demanded. Any party may file a written demand for trial by jury by making a request to the court at least 3 days before the trial date. The demand must be accompanied by payment of a jury fee or by filing a sworn statement of inability to pay the jury fee. If a jury is demanded by either party, the jury will be impaneled and sworn as in other cases; and after hearing the evidence it will return its verdict in favor of the plaintiff or the defendant. If no jury is timely demanded by either party, the judge will try the case.

(c) Limit on Postponement. Trial in an eviction suit must not be postponed for more than 7 days unless both parties agree in writing.

RULE 510.8. JUDGMENT; WRIT; NO NEW TRIAL

(a) Judgment Upon Jury Verdict. Where a jury has returned a verdict, the judge may render judgment on the verdict or, if the verdict is contrary to the law or the evidence, judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

(b) Judgment for Plaintiff. If the judgment or verdict is in favor of the plaintiff, the judge must render judgment for plaintiff for possession of the premises, costs, delinquent rent as of the date of entry of judgment, if any, and attorney fees if recoverable by law.

(c) Judgment for Defendant. If the judgment or verdict is in favor of the defendant, the judge must render judgment for defendant against the plaintiff for costs and attorney fees if recoverable by law.

(d) Writ. If the judgment or verdict is in favor of the plaintiff, the judge must award a writ of Possession upon demand of the plaintiff and payment of any required fees.

(1) Time to Issue. Except as provided by Rule 510.5, no Writ of Possession may issue before the 6th day after the date a judgment for possession is signed or the day following the deadline for the defendant to appeal the judgment, whichever is later. A Writ of Possession may not issue more than 60 days after a judgment for possession is signed. For good cause, the court may extend the deadline for issuance to 90 days after a judgment for possession is signed.

(2) Time to Execute. A Writ of Possession may not be executed after the 90th day after a Judgment for possession is signed.

(3) Effect of Appeal. A Writ of Possession must not issue if an appeal is perfected and, if applicable, rent is paid into the registry, as required by these rules.

(e) No Motion For New Trial. No motion for new trial may be filed.

RULE 510.9. APPEAL

(a) How Taken; Time. A party may appeal a judgment in an eviction case by filing a bond, making a cash deposit, or filing a sworn statement of inability to pay with the Justice Court within 5 days after the judgment is signed.

(b) Amount of Security. The Justice Court judge will set the amount of the bond or cash deposit to include the items enumerated in Rule 510.11. The bond or cash deposit must be payable to the appellee and must be conditioned on the appellant's prosecution of its appeal to effect and payment of any judgment and all costs rendered against it on appeal.

(c) Sworn Statement of Inability to Pay.

(1) Filing; contest. An appellant who cannot furnish a bond or pay a cash deposit in the amount required may instead file a sworn statement of inability to pay. The statement must meet the requirements of Rule 502.3(b).

(2) Contest. The statement may be contested as provided in Rule 502.3(d) within 5 days after the opposing party receives notice that the statement was filed.

(3) Appeal If Contest Sustained. If the contest is sustained, the appellant may appeal that decision by filing notice with the Justice Court within 5 days of that court's written order. The Justice Court must then forward all related documents to the County Court for resolution. The County Court must set the matter for hearing within 5 days and hear the contest de novo, as if there had been no previous hearing, and, if the appeal is granted, must direct the justice court to transmit to the Clerk of the County Court the transcript, records, and papers of the case, as provided in these rules.

(4) If no appeal or if appeal overruled. If the appellant does not appeal the ruling sustaining the contest, or if the county court denies the appeal, the appellant may, within one business day, post an appeal bond or make a cash deposit in compliance with this rule.

(5) Payment of Rent in Nonpayment of Rent Appeals.

(A) Notice. If a defendant appeals an eviction for nonpayment of rent by filing a sworn statement of inability to pay, the Justice Court must provide to the defendant a written notice at the time the statement is filed that contains the following information in bold or conspicuous type:

- (i) the amount of the initial deposit of rent, equal to one rental period's rent under the term of the rental agreement, that the defendant must pay into the justice court registry;
- (ii) whether the initial deposit must be paid in cash, cashier's check, or money order, and to whom the cashier's check or money order, if applicable, must be made payable;
- (iii) the calendar date by which the initial deposit must be paid into the Justice Court Registry, which must be within 5 days of the date the sworn statement of inability to pay is filed; and
- (iv) a statement that failure to pay the required amount into the justice court registry by the required date may result in the court issuing Writ of Possession without hearing.

(B) defendant May Remain in Possession. A defendant who appeals an eviction for nonpayment of rent by filing a sworn statement of inability to pay is entitled to stay in possession of the premises during the pendency of the appeal by complying with the following procedure:

- (i) Within 5 days of the date that the defendant files a sworn statement of Inability to Pay, it must pay into the Justice Court Registry the amount set forth in the notice provided at the time the defendant filed the statement. If the defendant was provided with notice and fails to pay the designated amount into the Justice Court Registry within 5 days and the transcript has not been transmitted to the County Clerk, the plaintiff is entitled, upon request and payment of the applicable fee, to a Writ of Possession, which the Justice Court must issue immediately and without hearing.
- (ii) During the appeal process as rent becomes due under the rental agreement, the defendant must pay the designated amount into the County Court registry within 5 days of the rental due date under the terms of the rental agreement.
- (iii) If a government agency is responsible for all or a portion of the rent, the defendant must pay only that portion of the rent determined by the Justice Court to be paid during appeal. Either party may contest the portion of the rent that the Justice Court determines must be paid into the County Court Registry by filing a contest within 5 days after the judgment is signed. If a contest is filed, the Justice Court must notify the parties and hold a hearing on the contest within 5 days. If the defendant objects to the Justice Court's ruling at the hearing, the defendant required to pay only the portion claimed to be owed by the defendant until the issue is tried in County Court.

(iv) If the defendant fails to pay the designated amount into the Court Registry within the time limits prescribed by these rules the plaintiff may file sworn motion that the defendant is in default in County Court. The plaintiff must notify the defendant of the motion and the hearing date. Upon a showing that the defendant is in default, the court must issue a Writ of Possession.

(v) The plaintiff may withdraw any or all rent in the County Court Registry upon sworn motion and hearing, prior to final determination of the case, showing just cause; dismissal of the appeal; or Order of the Court after final hearing.

(vi) All hearings and motions under this subparagraph are entitled to precedence in the County Court.

(d) Notice to Other Parties Required. If a Statement of Inability to Pay is filed, the court must provide notice to all other parties that the statement was filed no later than the next business day. Within 5 days of filing a bond or making a cash deposit, an appellant must serve written notice of the appeal on all other parties using a method approved under Rule 501.4

(e) No Default on Appeal Without Compliance With Rule. No judgment may be taken by default against the adverse party in the court to which the case has been appealed without first showing substantial compliance with this rule.

(f) Appeal Perfected. An appeal is perfected when a bond, cash deposit, or statement of Inability to Pay is filed in accordance with this rule.

RULE 510.10. RECORD ON APPEAL; DOCKETING; TRIAL DE NOVO

(a) Preparation and Transmission of Record. Unless otherwise provided by law or these rules, when an appeal has been perfected, the judge must stay all further proceedings on the judgment and must immediately send to the Clerk of the County Court a certified copy of all docket entries, a certified copy of the bill of costs, and the original papers in the case together with any money in the Court Registry, including sums tendered pursuant to Rule 510.9(c)(5)(B).

(b) Docketing; Notice. The County Clerk must docket the case and must immediately notify the parties of the date of receipt of the transcript and the docket number of the case. The notice must advise the defendant that it must file a written answer in the County Court within 8 days if one was not filed in the justice court.

(c) Trial De Novo. The case must be tried De Novo in the County Court. A trial De Novo is a new trial in which the entire case is presented as if there had been no previous trial. The trial, as well as any hearings and motions, is entitled to precedence in the County Court.

RULE 510.11. DAMAGES ON APPEAL

On the trial of the case in the County Court the appellant or appellee will be permitted to plead, prove and recover his damages, if any, suffered for withholding or defending possession of the premises during the pendency of the appeal. Damages may include but are not limited to loss of rentals during the pendency of the appeal and attorney fees in the Justice and County Courts provided, as to attorney fees, that the requirements of Section 24.006 of the Texas Property Code have been met. Only the party prevailing in the County Court will be entitled to recover damages against the adverse party. The prevailing party will also be entitled to recover court costs and to recover against the sureties on the appeal bond in cases where the adverse party has executed an appeal bond.

RULE 510.12. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT ON APPEAL

An eviction case appealed to County Court will be subject to trial at any time after the expiration of 8 days after the date the transcript is filed in the County Court. If the defendant has filed a written answer in the Justice Court, it must be taken to constitute his appearance and answer in the County Court and may be amended as in other cases. If the defendant made no answer in writing in the Justice Court and fails to file a written answer within 8 days after the transcript is filed in the County Court, the allegations of the complaint may be taken as admitted and judgment by default may be entered accordingly.

RULE 510.13. WRIT OF POSSESSION ON APPEAL

The Writ of Possession, or Execution, or both, will be issued by the Clerk of the County Court according to the judgment rendered, and the same will be executed by the Sheriff or Constable, as in other cases. The judgment of the County Court may not be stayed unless within 10 days from the judgment the appellant files a supersedeas bond in an amount set by the County Court pursuant to Section 24.007 of the Texas Property Code.
